God Shows Up

Well, God blessed us with another amazing Expo in WPB on February 20 with 1,142 attendees! The weather was ideal and His presence could be felt covering the event and seen on the smiles of so many participants and volunteers alike.

I know we say this a lot but it is so true. We've had folks tell us several times at different venues that it is "so peaceful" as if God was hovering above like a blanket of clouds. And you know what? He is! We pray for His presence to permeate each Expo and it so encouraging to see Him show up in so many unique ways.

The smiles we talk about seem extra radiant on event day, too. It's often like the joy of the Lord is shining through each face. And you know what? He is! What greater joy can we as Christians have other than walking in his light and love by being His hands and feet serving others.

On top of the emotional gifts God so faithfully brings, He also provides physical blessings all day long at each Expo. In West Palm Beach, He provided over 1,400 hamburgers and hot dogs, countless snow cones, bags of popcorn and tubes of cotton candy, as well as first time boat rides, kayaking trips and encounters with horses. There were even many mobility items and medical supplies collected for Belize that day.

who accepted Christ making it an eternally memorable day! All in all, it is safe to say that good things happen when God shows up. ☺

However, the best blessing is when in this "heaven like" atmosphere, someone prays to receive the ultimate gift God has out there as a standing offer: His salvation through forgiveness of sin. In West Palm Beach, we know of at least 1 person
