Leanne Life Legacy Easter Baskets, Bibles, Spring Fling, Resurrection Eggs and More

Since our annual mission trip and outreach to Belize was postponed until March 18th the 23rd we hit the ground running when we got home to distribute our second annual Leanne life Legacy Easter baskets in not only Central Florida but also East Tennessee this year as well as prepare for our annual Easter Spring Fling at Faith Community Church in Talbot, Tennessee on March 28th.

God was so faithful as always in bringing things together and multiplying our time that we were able to distribute all five of the Easter Leanne Life Legacy baskets containing a Bible, Ministry art and verse book, $100 grocery card, Leanne Life Legacy t-shirt, and festive and fun items about the true meaning of Easter for kids of all age by March 29th.

It is always a blessing to me to get to meet each of these recipients when we give them the basket and this year I had the special opportunity to reconnect with an old friend who has a spinal cord injury similar to mine. It was so interesting to learn about the similarities and differences in our journeys both marked by God's gracious faithfulness and goodness.

In East Tennessee, thanks to Hannah Spradling, our East Tennessee Ministry lead and local volunteer Amanda Rathbun, God blessed us with another great Easter Spring Fling in East Tennessee where all of the attendees were able to not only enjoy seasonal crafts but hear the true story of Easter through our resurrection egg activity.

Amanda, went above and beyond again this year and distributed LeAnn Life Legacy baskets to recipients living with disabilities in need in East Tennessee, too. It is so great to see God work through the hearts and minds of his people to do such great things for Him. He's always shining his light and blessing people with His love every day of the year and what better time to shine bright for Him than at Easter.

All in all, it was a busy time with a lot of hard work but so thankful that our Ministry teams came together to remind everyone that He is risen, conquered all and lives forever in victory.
